

Teaching with digital tools

Length :	1 day
Venue :	Your facilities/Online
Calendar :	tba
Group size :	from 5 to 15 persons
Target audience :	Ph.D. students, research professors
Trainers :	George Pillegand-Le Rider, Aneline Dolet, Marine Pansu

During this one-day training course, trainees will discover various digital tools and learn how to use them to offer richer, more varied teaching.

Overall pedagogical objective

Mastering several digital tools for teaching

Specific pedagogical objectives

- Getting to know the tools available
- Understanding the possibilities and limitations of tools
- Knowing how to choose a tool for a particular need
- Practicing with confidence

Teaching method

Interactive training with group and individual exercises

Programme

- Collective assessment and personal evaluation
- Introduction to digital tools
- Presentation of a few tools
- Advantages and limitations
- Comparison of tools for different uses
- Group problem-solving exercise
- Practical application to a course

This training is held in English and French.